

Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering

Semester: 1

Self Driven Activity

Quarter 2

Activity Name	Heritage walk - Jain Gommateshwara temple, Shravanabelagola
Objectives	Heritage walk for students to the Jain Gommateshwara Temple in Shravanabelagola can be an enriching educational experience, blending history, religion, art and culture.
About the Activity	A heritage walk to the Jain Gommateshwara Temple in Shravanabelagola is a rich cultural and spiritual experience. Shravanabelagola, located in Karnataka, India, is a renowned Jain pilgrimage site with historical, architectural, and religious significance.
Date of Activity	02/12/2024
Place of Activity	Jain Gommateshwara temple, Shravanabelagola
Mode of Conduct	Offline
Time	One Day
Mandatory / Elective	Mandatory
Participants	All 2 nd year students from the EEE Department 3 Staffs from the EEE Department
Activity Outcomes	A heritage walk to the Gommateshwara Temple is more than a field trip — it's an immersive journey into India's spiritual and cultural legacy. By connecting students with history and traditions, such a walk can spark curiosity and foster a deeper appreciation for heritage conservation.

Department of Electrical and Electronics Engineering

Picture during Heritage walk to Jain Gommateshwara temple

Picture prior to Heritage walk to Jain Gommateshwara temple

Dr. Pradeep K.G.M.
Head of the Department

Dr. Sahana C P
IIC Vice President

Dr. Prashantha S J
IIC President

Dr. Mahesh P K
Principal
Principal
Rajeev Institute of Technology
Hassan-573 201