A report on Tree Plantion Programme

Place: Industrial Area, Hassan Date: 26th June 2024

The World Environment Day is observed around world on June 5th every year. The main objective of this day is to raise awareness about preserving nature. And raising global temparature and raising sea levels which causes serious consequences in future and for the future generation how to conserve and preserve nature.

On 26th of June our college has organised the activity of plating tree saplings Industrial Area, Hassan and also engage in cleaning the parthenium plants by the Students. Planting new plants and watering to the plants by the students will give the students satisfaction of doing a good work and contributing to conservation of nature by doing this small things.
