Description	The Ministry of Education's Innovation Cell is going to organise a series of sessions with Indian Leaders and Start-up founders in the form of podcasts named "Rashtra Pratham" and "Celebrating Failures" to inspire young minds by seeing challenges as opportunities. Jaipuria Institute of Management, Ghaziabad, under the aegis of its Institution's Innovation Council (IIC), hosted a special edition of the MIC Podcast Series titled "Rashtra Pratham" on July 4, 2025. The session was live-streamed via YouTube and brought an extraordinary opportunity for students to engage with the visionary insights of Mr. Ashish Chauhan, Managing Director & CEO of the National Stock Exchange of India (NSE). Mr. Chauhan, a distinguished alumnus of IIT Bombay and IIM Calcutta, reflected on his journey from an engineer to a reformative leader in India's financial sector. Key takeaways from the podcast: Visionary Leadership: Chauhan highlighted the role of visionary leadership in driving institutional transformation. Technological Evolution: He discussed the technological advancements behind the Nifty index and India's first financial satellite network. Resilience and Growth Mindset: Chauhan shared his personal experiences of navigating setbacks, emphasizing the importance of resilience and a growth mindset. Continuous Learning: He stressed the need for continuous learning and adaptability in a dynamic professional landscape. National Service: The podcast also underscored the importance of national service and putting the nation first.
Activity Outcome	Students walked away with: Greater clarity on career direction and leadership development.
