Conducted By Mrs. Harshini H P Resource Person Dr. Ramapriya Time 10.00am to 01.00pm Mandatory/Elective Mandatory Participants 62 Place Seminar Hall, 4th Floor, RIT Main Block It helps the students to know what is GST, how it came in to existence instead of VAT and how GST can be computed according to government statutory complaince The Goods and Services Tax (GST) is a successor to VAT used in India on the supply of goods and service. Both VAT and GST have the same taxation slabs. India currently recognizes four types of goods service tax returns. These are: CGST (Central Goods and Services Tax): When buying or selling thing within one state, CGST is collected as an indirect tax by the central government in order to raise money for activities like infrastructure development and public services. SGST (State Goods and Services Tax): When purchasing or selling something within your state, an SGST tax is collected by the government and used for local projects, schools and other purposes that benefit the entire population of the particular state. The money collected stays within its borders to fund local needs or state initiatives.	Date of Activity	25/06/2025
